

Abstract:

As you know in Algeria, water problem is always posed :the natural resources are becoming more and rare in spite of the development of industries , pumping stations , drinking water alimentation , irrigation , construction of dams...

In fact, from day to another, the underground water-level and the Wadis are becoming dry. That is why we have to provide a development system of a resource as the natural gas that is spread enough in Algeria.